BANGOR BREWERY,

No. 103 Broad Street.

THE undersigned has the pleasure of informing the citizens of Bangor and vicinity that he has at a very large outlay established a Brewery for the manufacture of the best brands of Ale. My head brewer, Mr Williamson, has no superior in the country, in skill and experience, acquired by over fifteen years service in the largest breweries of London, New York and Boston.

The water used is from the famous Taylor spring and my malt and hops are of the best quality, thus ensuring the fullest flavor and the finest purity — Believing the public will appreciate home en terprise I shall spare no pains to furnish an article which shall meet their entire approbation.

I shall also manufacture a desirable article of light Ale, specially for family use. My intention is to supply the trade, but for the present I shall accommodate the public in such quantities as may be desired.

My Ale is now on draft at the principal hotels and retail shops in this city.

Grant's Forces in Possession of Port Gibson—The Conscription to Begin with New York—The Army Cheerful and Confident—Grant's Army Marching on the Rear of Vicksburg—Large Subscription of Five-Twenties—Official Despatch from General Grant.

NEW YORK, 8th

The World's special states that it is believed in Washington that the Conscription will be immediately enforced, beginning with the State of New York

Sixty five rebel prisoners took the oath of allegiance, and more than a quarter of the prisoners taken will do the same

Eleven hundred and seventy rebel prisoners captured at Chancellorsville have been sent to Fort Delaware under guard of the 14th N. H. regiment. Many of them wish to take the oath of allegiance

Longstreet's force comprising two divisions, was seen coming from Suffolk to Richmond when our returned prisoners were on their way down the river

The Richmond Despatch of the 17th says that a rebel surgeon gives their loss at 18,000 men.

The Herald's despatch states that the War Department has consented to allow the wounded to go home to be nursed

The Herald's correspondent says that a ride along the lines of our soldiers under arms, and a visit to the men in the hospitals, must convince the most stubborn unbeliever that the army is cheerful and entirely confident of success.

NEW YORK, 9th

The steamer Morning Star from New Orleans 30th, via Havana 4th has arrived

A portion of Banks's staff and Mr Tucker, his private Secretary, are passengers

Colonel Thorpe and several wounded officers are also passengers

The gunboat Huntsville was spoken on the 2d inst off Moro Castle. All well and reported to have taken three prizes

A Havana letter to the Times states that news had been received from the French headquarters in Mexico to the 12th ult., saying that they are in possession of all but a small portion of Puebla

CINCINNATI, 9th

The following is a special despatch to the Gazette

Memphis Tenn., May 7th

General Grant has captured Grand Gulf, Port Gibson and Willard Valley

On Wednesday, Grant's army was 30 miles up the Big Black river, marching on the rear of Vicksburg. The army was enthusiastic at the prospect of a speedy victory

CINCINNATI, 9th

The Court Martial in the Vallandigham case submitted their decision to Major General Burnside yesterday. It will not be made public till published in General Orders.

NASHVILLE, 9th

It is reported by a gentleman who has just come through our lines, that General Van Dorn was shot and instantly killed by Dr Peters of Maury county, yesterday, at the latter's house. Our informant states that Van Dorn was discovered in criminal intercourse with the wife of Dr Peters

WASHINGTON, 9th

The following has been received at the headquarters of the Army—

Grand Gulf, May 3d, }
Memphis, 7th }

To Major General Halleck

We landed at Bruinsburg April 30th—Moved immediately on Port Gibson, met the enemy, 11,000 strong, four miles south of Port Gibson at 2 A M, on the 1st inst, and engaged him all day, entirely routing him with the loss of many killed and about 500 prisoners, besides the wounded.

Our loss is about one hundred killed and five hundred wounded

The enemy retreated towards Vicksburg, destroying the bridges over the two forks of the Bayou Pierre. These were rebuilt and the pursuit continued until the present time

Besides the heavy artillery at this place, four field pieces were captured and some stores, and the enemy were driven to destroy many more

The country is the most broken, and difficult to operate in I ever saw

Our victory has been most complete, and the enemy are thoroughly demoralized

From the Times Extra of Sunday

Reported Capture of Richmond—Gen. Hooker Across the Rappahanock With Eight Days' Rations—Heavy Reinforcements Arriving at Yorktown—General Stoneman at White House.

NEW YORK, 8th

There is a rumor in town to the effect that General Keyes had marched on Richmond and captured that place. This report is said to have come from Fortress Monroe by telegraph and we have reason to believe that a despatch to this effect had reached this city today

PHILADELPHIA, 8th

The Bulletin of this city has the following highly important news—We learn from the editors of the Philadelphia Inquirer that one of their correspondents, who has just returned from Washington, informs them that General Hooker re-crossed the Rappahannock in force yesterday, the men carrying eight days rations with them

We also learn from another source that it is vouched for as reliable, that General Keyes has taken Richmond, having advanced on it by way of Yorktown, and that the federal flag now floats over the rebel capitol

If this intelligence is true, it proves that General Hooker's falling back is a ruse, that the real advance upon Richmond was to be made while Lee's army was on the Rappahannock

If Stoneman has cut off the communication of Lee, as is reported, it will be a work of time for the men to reach the rebel capital, and in the meantime Hooker is upon his heels

We have confirmation from a perfectly reliable source that General Hooker has re-crossed the Rappahannock

Gold has been falling rapidly today, and this fact has probably resulted from the important movement reported above

PHILADELPHIA, 9th

It is reported that private advices have been received in this city from Fortress Monroe, stating that 10,000 federal troops arrived there on the 5th, as reinforcements, and immediately moved forward for the attack on Richmond

There is no doubt that General Hooker has re-crossed the Rappahannock

It is also stated that General Stoneman was lying at the White House on the 6th instant, and receiving reinforcements by transports by way of York River, which he immediately moved forward to Richmond

The people of this city are in the highest state of enthusiasm over this glorious news

A GOOD SHOT. I never pass the old toll gate at Newcastle bridge without thinking of George Schaffer, who many years ago lived in Portsmouth. I must tell it as a tribute to his memory. Once he had been in Newcastle gunning, and was coming home with his game-bag empty, and very weary, when he stopped at the toll-house for a moment's rest. Says he to the toll taker, "There's a fine flock of ducks back here in the pond, what will you let me fire into them for?" "Can't do it," replied the toll man, "I don't want to have my ducks killed." George put his gun into the toll-house, and walked back to take another look at the ducks. While he was gone, the toll-man, who was a wag, drew the shot from the barrel and then replaced the gun. George returned and renewed the question. "Well," said the toll man, though you are called a good shot, I don't believe you can hurt them much. Give me a dollar and you may fire. The dollar was paid and quite a party, who had gathered round, went back to witness George's discomfiture. He raised his gun, fired and killed nine of them. "The devil!" cried the toll-man in consternation, "how did you do that? I took the charge out of your gun." "Yes," said George, "I supposed you would. I always go double charged."

—B. P. Shillaber

LETTER FROM MR ADAMS. The following letter from Mr Adams, in reply to an application for a certificate similar to that which has created so much excitement in England, ought to dispose of the unjust inferences which have been drawn from that document

"LEGATION OF THE UNITED STATES }
London, April, 23, 1863 }

Sir: I have to acknowledge the reception of your note, dated yesterday. I regret to perceive that you labor under a misconception of the course taken by me heretofore. It must be obvious to you that I have no authority to exercise any discrimination in regard either to the vessels or the voyages of Her Majesty's subjects. When they are engaged in legal undertakings, they have a right to rely upon the protection of her Government, and they will undoubtedly obtain it. When it is otherwise, of course they would not expect it from her, or ask it from a representative of the United States.

I am, sir, you obedient servant,

General Hooker himself give the following good and sufficient reasons for having returned across the Rappahannock on Tuesday last, (He has now re-crossed and is after Lee and Jackson again, if the despatches of Saturday and yesterday are correct).

First, the flight of the Eleventh Corps, which rendered General Sickles' movement nugatory and forced the army out of the carefully selected field of battle to which General Hooker referred in his general order of April 30, and compelled to receive the enemy's attack among dense wooded hills, where it was impossible to bring all or nearly all our troops into action

Second, The rising of the Rappahannock, in consequence of the storm, which was likely to endanger the line of communication between the army and its supplies, particularly as the railroad communication with Aquia Creek having been destroyed by the flood for twelve hours at Brooks' station

Third, Ignorance of the success of General Stoneman's expedition, from which Gen Hooker did not hear until he had re-crossed

General Sigel has been ordered to the Army of the Rappahannock, and it is supposed, will be assigned to a command, including his old corps, the 11th

THE KILLED AND WOUNDED. The following casualties occurred in the 6th Maine regiment, Sedgwick's division:

Died in hospital, J Dow, F C Savage, wounded—Cyrus W. Brown, Sergeant G. H. French; J Lewis Scott, Co. A, thigh; C Clapp, I, hand, Corporal A Witham, I, slight; J C Whittemore, I, do; Corporal R. B. Kendall, H; C Frame, F, thigh; Sergeant W F Brown, I, back, severely; Lieut G Bailey, H, leg amputated; ... Gleason, A, hand; Adjutant Bicknell, slightly; Capt. ... thigh ... [illegible]

REBEL VIEW OF GEN HOOKER'S MOVEMENT. The Richmond Whig of May 1st thus comments upon Gen Hooker's advance movement

The movement so far as we can judge, appears to be a feint at Deep Run, while the grand attack is to be made on Lee's flank. The forces lately marched out of Washington to Warrenton will probably join the attacking column — It has been stated, on what is believed to be good authority, that Hooker's army is numerically less than our own. The reinforcements from Washington may make it larger, but that is of little moment if, as we have heard, the country above Fredericksburg is as well adapted for defensive warfare as the scene of the grand slaughter of December last

The prospect of a general engagement occasions scarcely any excitement whatever in the rebel capital. Lee and Jackson are abundantly able to cope with Hooker, even though his army were not demoralized by repeated defeats, by distrust and hatred of their abolitionist commander, and by the palpable fact that the Lincoln government is forcing a fight out of them merely for spite at their refusal to re-enlist in an endless war for negro freedom and white slavery

The heavy rains of the past two days may interfere seriously with the sanguinary work in which the Confederate and Yankee armies are about to engage. If only three brigades of the enemy have crossed at Deep Run, and the river rises behind them, endangering their pontoon bridges, they may be promptly recalled and the attack postponed for more auspicious weather. But we shall be painfully disappointed if they are permitted to return to the Stafford shore without molestation. It is an object, doubtless, to get them over and within striking distance; for, if the fight must come the sooner it comes the better. But the practice of crossing a Southern river must not be permitted without the exaction of heavy toll

All this may be safely trusted to our noble Lee

The "toll" seems to have been taken at the Richmond mills by Keyes, if yesterday's reports are true

SERVED THEM RIGHT. A source of great annoyance and mischief from the very commencement of the present war, has been the reckless and irresponsible course of many of the correspondents of the daily newspapers. In their greed for sensational news they have wantonly disregarded the necessities of the army and the interests of the country. They have disclosed important information to the enemy, lest some other journal than the one for which they collect news should be a few hours ahead of them. A just and important step has recently been taken by the Commander of the Potomac army, to abate the nuisance, for which he deserves the thanks of the country. General Hooker has just issued an order requiring all newspaper correspondents within his lines to publish their communications over their own signatures. "In case of failure to comply with this order through their own or employers' neglect, such correspondents shall be excluded from, and the circulation of the journal for which they correspond suppressed, within the lines of the army."

OUR RELATIONS WITH ENGLAND. A special despatch from Washington to the New York Evening Post, says:

I learn on authority that the despatches which came out by the last steamer bring positive information that the present British Ministry have declared their intention to maintain the neutrality of the Government to oppose every attempt to bring on war with this country, and will resign rather than yield to the senseless clamor of agitators in or out of Parliament

I hear upon the highest authority that there is no danger of a collision with England. The official correspondence is entirely pacific in its character

The Reported Capture of the Rebel Capital.

The reported capture of Richmond which came over the wires on Saturday evening, perfectly electrified the country, coming as it did without the slightest present expectation of such an event, and so soon after the great depression and despondency which attended the unwarrantable announcement of a disastrous defeat of Hooker. Few people could believe that Richmond was taken, and the despatches printed yesterday being of a general nature, were not such as to make the fact by any means certain. There was still a strong fear that the whole thing might be a mere stock and gold speculating affair—and such now (Sunday afternoon) appears most likely to be the case. That the report may be true, if Richmond had been left with as few troops as represented, is plain to be seen—and then it was and in probable that a part of Hooker's original plan may have been to take Richmond by a movement from the Peninsula or from Suffolk, after the rebels had sent off all their troops to Fredericksburg, and after Stoneman had cut the railways and bridges to prevent their returning in a hurry to Richmond. It certainly looks as if this was a part of an admirably devised and well executed piece of strategy—strategy such as will fully pay off certain little debts of this kind which we owe to the rebels. If Richmond has been taken in this way, it will be an astounding blow not only to their military power and prestige, but in their self assumption of superiority in the art of war. It will take the conceit out of them with a vengeance.

We hope it is so. The probabilities are certainly in its favor. But we must not assume too quickly that the reports are true. They may have been corroborated by last night's despatches, (not received when this article was written) If so, then we might prepare to hear either of a sudden and tremendous attack of Lee upon Hooker, or of a precipitate retreat of the former to the south and west of Richmond, followed and harrased by Hooker, and perhaps entirely cut up and demoralized. In the event of Lee's turning at bay, and making a desperate attempt at retrieving the loss of Richmond by defeating Hooker, we may expect the severest fighting of the war. We shall have the advantage of numbers, and the enemy will probably be short of supplies. Let us hope that we may at least have complete and decisive victory.

[Since writing the above we have our despatches of last night, which give no confirmation of the rumor about the capture of Richmond. We may consider, therefore that the report was untrue.]

But the people North and South are sick of the war. They are disgusted with their leaders, and are anxious to devise some means whereby the leaders can be overthrown and the war ended, peace restored, and the people become united, prosperous and happy. The way to these is through the influence and by the principles of the Democratic party.—Machias Union.

And what does the democratic party propose as this "way" to peace. In the Union's own language—first an "armistice"—2d a convention of delegates from all the loyal States and as many of the disloyal ones as would respond. What then? It is just there that this eastern organ of the "peace" democracy stops. It does not tell us how this convention is to settle the matter between the North and South, so that "the people will become again united, prosperous and happy." We are not informed how the rebel leaders are to be induced to come back into the Union. The writer says generally that "peace is to be obtained through the principles and by the influence of the Democratic party." We don't see how—unless he admits that it is just now one of the principles of the Democratic party to consent to the secession of the rebel States, and the consequent disruption of the Union, the ruin of our nationality, the destruction of the power and influence of our Republic, and a fatal blow to the cause of free government throughout the world. If this is one of the "democratic principles" of the present day, it might produce a transient peace with the South provided the people of the North should adopt this singular style of democracy. Otherwise we do not perceive how this proposed convention is even to bring about a temporary peace.

General Berry. Extract from a letter of the late General Kearney to I. Washburn, Jr., dated May 10th, 1862:

"General Berry's charge (at Williamsburg) with the left wing of our line of battle evinced a courage that might have been expected from him, (who as Colonel of the 4th regiment of Maine volunteers nearly saved the day at Bull Run) and shows a genius for war and a pertinacity in the fight that proved him fit for high command; for he was most severely assailed on the left, and had most difficult rifle pits and abattis to face and carry."

It is known that Generals Hooker and Kearney assigned to General Berry the credit of saving the day at Williamsburg, and that both earnestly asked for his appointment as Major General.

☞ The Boston Traveler says it is plainly the duty of ship-owners themselves to have built without delay, as many swift steamers as possible, to convey their vessels along the great tracks of commerce.

Letter from Hon. John H. Rice.

WASHINGTON, April 16th, 1863.

Messrs. Wheeler & Lynde:

I have just returned with Gov. Coburn, from the battle-field upon the Rappahannock. The "Light Brigade," under command of Co. Burnham of the 6th Me. Vols., led the attack upon the rebel forts and entrenchments upon the heights of Fredericksburg, with distinguished bravery. The 6th Maine, under command of Lieut Col Harris, was particularly noted for its unwavering steadiness and daring bravery. ☞ We learn that the Board of Enrollment for this Congressional District is composed (besides the Provost Marshal, Mr. Low,) of Lieut. Col. Chandler of the 6th Maine, (of Foxcroft,) and Dr. Allen of Monson, as Surgeon. No instructions have yet been received by the Provost Marshal.

☞ The Fishing bounties for this State have been paid by government, or the money deposited in Boston for the draft of the Collectors.

Sad News. Saturday night's mail brought the sad news of the death of Lieut. Dudley B. Johnson, Co. H, 17th Maine Regiment, who was instantly killed on Saturday or Sunday last in the battle of Fredericksburg. Lieut. Johnson was formerly a resident of this city, a brother of Isaac S. Johnson, Esq., but lately a resident of Florenceville, N. B., where he leaves a wife and child. He was First Lieutenant of his company, was universally popular with officers and men, and his friends have the consolation of knowing that he died in the discharge of his duty, while nobly leading his men in the fight. Posterity will cherish the memory of those brave men who perish to perpetuate our glorious institutions.—Lieut Johnson's body was still within the enemy's lines at last accounts

Drowned. Mr. Marshall Willey of Oldtown, fell from Veazie's mill on Friday last, and was drowned. He was a steady, industrious man, about 50 years of age, and leaves a wife and several children.

☞ A barn belonging to the estate of Thomas Rice, in Winslow, was burned on Saturday in consequence of boys burning brush near by.

☞ Company H, 11th Regiment Maine Volunteers, recently presented Lieut. M. M. Folsom with a splendid sword and belt.

☞ Adjutant George W. Bicknell, of Westbrook, of the Maine 5th Regiment, son of B. T. Bicknell, Esq., of Bath, was wounded in the late battle near Fredericksburg.

☞ Assistant Adjutant General Richard C. Shannon, of the 12th army corps, has been wounded and taken prisoner. Captain Shannon was chief of General Jackson's staff.

☞ The 21st Maine at Baton Rouge has lost eighty men by typhoid fever

☞ The balance of the 7th Maine regiment is to leave Portland for Washington immediately

☞ A young lady by the name of Libby, died in Danville, Thursday, of diptheria. She was sick but five days The telegraph operator in this city, Mr Brown, is also very sick of the same disease.—Lewiston Journal

☞ Rev. Mr. Butler is called to Rockland next week to officiate at the funeral ceremonies of the late General Hiram G. Berry.—Lewiston Jour.

☞ The remains of General Berry reached Portland Friday, and lay in state there at the City Hall until the departure of the boat for Rockland. The remains were in charge of Lieut Col. Freeman and Capt. Greenhalgh of his staff —the latter accompanying them to this State.

☞ Died in Augusta May 8th, Dr Lot Myrick, aged about 72 Dr. Myrick was one of the oldest citizens of Augusta—a prominent and useful member of the community, and very highly esteemed

Fatal Result. We learn that Sergeant Wm P Holden of this city, a member of Co. G, 2d Maine Regiment, who was wounded at the second Bull Run battle, died in the hospital four days ago

☞ The fortifications at Fort Popham are progressing slowly. It is stated that the lower tier of guns are to be placed on the works this season.

☞ Work has commenced on the foundation of the boarding block of the Porter Mill, Lewiston, which is to be built this season. The block is in front of the mill, on the opposite side of the canal

☞ The Franklin Patriot states that the Grand Jury of Franklin County, at their late term of Court found a true bill against Doyle, who was arrested some time since for the murder of a little girl in Strong. He will not be tried till the October term.

☞ Captain Albert Devereux, of the brig J. P. Elliott of Bucksport, on Tuesday was held before U. S Commissioner Tuttle, in Boston, in the sum of $500, on the charge of illegally imprisoning a seaman named Wm Reed, one of his crew. The bail was given.

☞ Corn meal is $6 per bushel in Raleigh, North Carolina.

☞ The 24th Maine Regiment was paid off on the 20th ult. The pay rolls amounted to about $75,000.

☞ The steamer Augusta ran into one of the piers of the Gardiner bridge on Monday, and stove in her guards. Bridge uninjured. —Gardiner Journal

☞ The fishing bounties in the eastern district were paid last week by Collector Long, as we learn from the Sentinel. Amount—$6,657 to 87 vessels.

☞ We learn from the Dover Observer that the house of Robert Low, in Guilford, was destroyed by fire on the 1st inst, with all its contents—No insurance.

☞ The Rockland Free Press says that on Thursday night, April 22d, the saw mill and shingle mill, in Vinalhaven, belonging to Stephen Mills, were destroyed by fire. Damage about $1,200. Partially insured.

☞ The Fayetteville (N. C.) Observer says: A few days ago a North Carolina soldier, near Charleston, wrote to his father, saying that he had just received five pounds of meat as the allowance of seven men for a week

☞ A political paper, in noticing a demonstration of its party once, said: "The air was rent with the snouts of three thousand people" After which the band should have played "Root hog or die."

Journalism in Vicksburg. The press seems to labor under some disadvantage in Vicksburg, quite local in their character. The Vicksburg Whig of the 21st of April says:

"We owe our readers an apology for the scarcity of reading matter in this morning's paper. The shells from the Yankee battery across the river burst so close to our office yesterday that the printers could do but little work."

A Sad Affair. The Portland Press says that a melancholy affair occurred at the Alms House in that city on Tuesday last. There is a man in the house by the name of John Archibald about 28 years old, whose intellect is of so feeble a character as to approach quite nearly to idiocy. While in a room in which many of the male inmates congregate of an evening, several of the boys were playing with him, when some of their freaks annoying him, he seized the tongs and with a rapidity which prevented any intervention, struck a lad by the name of John Malloy over the head two or three times, fracturing his skull. The City Physician was soon in attendance, and Dr. Gilman, one of the consulting Physicians, was called, but the wound was so severe that the lad died in about 24 hours. He was about eleven years old, and a very good boy.

☞ Lieutenant Twitchell of the 5th battery was severely wounded in the left hand and had his thigh and right knee bruised as we learn from the Press.

☞ On the arrival of the remains of General Berry at Washington the President sent his son with a wreath of flowers from the Conservatory of the White House to be placed upon the coffin.

☞ General Berry's body which reached Portland Friday, was attired in the full dress of Major General, and the features presented a natural appearance. During the whole afternoon throngs of people of both sexes crowded the room where he lay, to take a last look at the remains at the gallant hero who had died in the service of his country. The body was attended by Mrs. Berry and daughter, who have been residing for a short time at New York, and also by his brother, J. T. Berry of Rockland. —Portland Press

☞ It appears to be certain that the rebel General Jackson was severely wounded in the battles of last week. The Richmond Sentinel says Jackson's left arm has been amputated.

☞ The income tax law offers a slight premium for domestic infelicity, in that if a man and his wife live together, and their aggregate income is in excess of $600, they are entitled to but one deduction at $600; whereas, if they maintain separate establishments, each will be entitled to a deduction of $600.

☞ A Chicago swindler has been realizing a handsome sum by advertising for clerks in a railroad office, requiring applicants to enclose one dollar agency fee He came to grief at last

☞ A good man's wealth hereafter is the good he does in this world to his fellow men.—When he dies people will say, "What property has he left behind him" But the angels will ask, "What good deeds has he sent before him?"

"The Book of Days." Part XIII of this most interesting miscellany is received by Messrs. Bugbee & Co. This work contains a thousand anecdotes and gems of the Literature, Biography and History of all ages, embellished and illustrated by numerous engravings. Each part is separate in itself; but when bound together they will make one of the most beautiful, interesting and desirable of books for the library

The Murder in Phillips. The Farmington Patriot gives some further particulars of the homicide in Phillips, by which Mr J. Tuck was shot dead by Mr. J Wright. The altercation was as before stated, about some sheep Some altercation took place between them, and they started to go and see the sheep, having some words as they went, and when a short distance from the house, Wright took his gun from his shoulder and shot Tuck, the charge taking effect in his side or breast. Tuck turned round and walked a few paces towards the house and fell on his face. Wright went to Tyler's house near by and told him he had shot Tuck and asked him to go and see how bad he was hurt. He went and found him dead. It is said, a grandson of Mr Tuck's was with them and heard and saw it all Wright was arrested that same evening and is probably having an examination to-day (Thursday) before a magistrate Mr Tuck was a man about 66 years old and Wright denies having any intention to kill Mr T, and says his gun was discharged accidentally, or that he merely intended to frighten him, and the gun went off at half cock.

GREAT Spring Opening, AT BICKFORD'S.

With opening Spring, see BICKFORD comes!
He hoists no flags, he beats no drums—
And yet, attracted by his lay,
The Finny Tribe their homage pay;
From lake and river, shoal and sea,
They rush to BICKFORD'S Jubilee.
Sweet HALIBUT and juicy CRABS
Delight to press his marble slabs—
Nice LOBSTERS, from old ocean green,
From Portland daily come by steam,
In their native salt water boiled,
And not with fresh Kenduskeag spoiled,—
Cod, in all his flaky whiteness,
MACKEREL, dazzling with his brightness
The noble SALMON, king of fishes,
The cynosure of all the dishes,
And that which makes the palate glad,
The sweet and toothsome river SHAD;
These, with other smaller fry,
Besides the Pickled, Smoked and Dry,
At BICKFORD'S ever do abound,
When anywhere they can be found.
His price is low—his scales are just—
In Providence he puts his trust—
While sought to health that's prejudicial
Pollutes his trade, which is—of fish-all

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.

Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, Quinsy, and the numerous as well as dangerous diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs, prevail, in our changeable climate, at all seasons of the year few are fortunate enough to escape their baneful influence. How important then to have at hand a certain antidote to all these complaints.—Experience proves that this exists in Wistar's Balsam, to an extent not found in any other remedy, however severe the suffering, the application of this soothing, healing and wonderful Balsam at once vanquishes the disease and restores the sufferer to wonted health.

From a Highly Respectable Apothecary in Bangor.

BANGOR, Oct 1, 1860

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Please send me a few dozen of WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. The demand for this excellent preparation for diseases of the Throat and Lungs, renders it necessary that I should purchase a considerable quantity of it. It has an enviable reputation which it has acquired upon its own merits alone. My customers assure me of their unlimited confidence in the medicine, and I consider it without a superior in the best of similar specifics. The fact of its having been before the public so long, and the demand still continuing, is proof positive of its appreciation by the afflicted portion of mankind. Respectfully yours ing for Washington, D C on important business connected with this department.

NEW YORK,

An order arrived here yesterday from Port Royal, S C, directing the immediate return of General Hickman's brigade to the department of the South

Rev Henry James of Mass has been appointed to succeed Rev James Means, deceased, as superintendent of blacks

Small pox has broken out in the contraband camp No fears are entertained of its reaching the troops

General Wessell and staff left on the 3d inst for Plymouth to assume the command of the district of the Albemarle

The sanitary condition of this department is excellent

On the 5th inst Lieutenant Colonel Lewis of the 1 New York cavalry made a reconnoissance with a battalion of his regiment from Newport to Pettice Mills, where Captain Wharton's rebel company were stationed Colonel Lewis taking the enemy by surprise ordered a charge, which resulted in the capture of the rebel camp, 56 horses, 14 prisoners, the company's arms and equipments without any loss on our side — Two of the enemy were killed

The commanding General of this department having heard that Gen Wilde is coming thither to raise an African Brigade, informs the Secretary of War that he will not only give General Wilde all the assistance in his power, but will enter into the work cheerfully, believing that the black troops will fight

A large number of secession residents of Newbern were sent outside our lines this morning The order for the expulsion of these people will be rigidly enforced throughout the department.

The rebel General Garnett's brigade attached to General Hill's command, who remains in this vicinity, has gone to Virginia

A sensation was created here by the marriage this morning of Charles C Lawrence of Boston, a member of the 44th Massachusetts regiment, to the accomplished daughter of Israel Disosway, a banker in Newbern After making a transfer of his property to the bridegroom the father left our lines with other disloyal citizens

Nearly 12,000 men belonging to the nine months and two years' regiments in this department will soon be mustered out of the service It is hoped that the patriotism of the North will perceive the propriety of raising a fund to promote enlistments in North Carolina regiments

CAIRO, Ill, 10th

The Memphis Bulletin of last evening has the following

"Six newspaper correspondents, Colburn of the World, Richardson and Brown of the Tribune, McCullough of the Cincinnati Commercial, Beatty of the Gazette, and Lodman of the Chicago Tribune, were on the tug destroyed by hot shot from the Vicksburg batteries on Sunday There were 20 persons aboard and only one is known to have escaped. Nothing had been heard of the remainder at Milliken's Bend up to Tuesday night If they reached either shore they were probably captured, as the rebels occupied the point of the Peninsula at the time, having crossed crossed over for the purpose of intercepting any barges that might be floating down

The Bulletin also says Grant has sent 1900 prisoners to Milliken's Bend A portion of his forces when last heard from were within twenty miles of Jackson, and had taken several days' rations with them

It was reported that the bridge over Big Black bayou had been destroyed, thus cutting off the rebel retreat from Vicksburg

BOSTON, 10th

Rumors reached here last evening and have been repeated to-day, of the capture of Richmond, causing considerable excitement The report appears to have originated in Philadelphia, yesterday afternoon, and to have been telegraphed to various points. There is a possibility of its truth, but as yet (E p m) there is no confirmation of the report.

[For the despatch from Philadelphia see first page]

NEW YORK, 10th

The Herald's Washington despatch says our loss in the recent battles on the Rappahannock are estimated at 11,000 and the rebel loss 18 000

It is reported that General Lee sent a flag of truce to General Hooker asking supplies for wounded federal soldiers, stating that his army was deficient therein and his communication cut off It is said medical and hospital supplies were sent

WASHINGTON, 9 h

The total number of wounded soldiers who have arrived here up to the present time is supposed to be about three thousand

Major General Sigel had an interview with President Lincoln today General Sigel is anxious to be put into active service

WASHINGTON, 10th

Hugh McCulloch, for the last 25 years connected with the State Bank of Indiana, and for many years its President, to whom the Secretary of the Treasury some time ago tendered the comptrollership of the currency, has consented to accept the position, and is now in the city for that purpose There were not even exciting rumors to disturb this unusually quiet Sabbath

NORFOLK, Va, 9th

A convention of the loyal citizens of the 2d congressional district, in which all the districts not in possession of the enemy were represented, was held here to day Mr L H Chandler was unanimously nominated as candidate to represent the Union party at the ensuing election,

PHILADELPHIA, 10th

Jay Cook, the Subscription Agent, reports sales of 5-20's on Saturday at 2,000,00. and for the week ending same day, 6,000,000. The aggregate amount sold by Mr Cooke and his sub-agents in the various cities and States is $68,-932,150

NEW YORK, 10th

PHILADELPHIA, 10.

A Republican Convention was held in the 1st, 2d and 3d Congressional Districts, to choose delegates, last night, to a Convention to nominate a candidate for Governor An attempt made to instruct the delegates to vote for John Covode, failed, and they go uninstructed.

NEW YORK, 10-h

The Tribune prints the following special despatch —

Murfreesboro, May 10th.

Four deserters from the 9th Kentucky, Hanson's brigade, at Beech Grove, state that two brigades are there, comprising about 8000 men. They expect the Unionists to advance, and are digging rifle pits.

A citizen from Rover reports that a force of that place last Thursday to reinforce Forrest at Decatur, Ala.

SAN FRANCISCO, 9th.

Arrived—Ship Grace Darling, Liverpool.

There is improved demand for groceries and metals suiting the Mexican trade.

Five sales of eastern butter have been made during the week at low rates.

BANGOR DAILY WHIG AND COURIER.

American & Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,
Late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, Washington, (under the Act of 1837.)
76 State Street, opposite Kilby Street,
BOSTON.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also, in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with dispatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, of ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is more successful at the Patent Office than the subscriber; and as success is the best proof of advantages and ability, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor by the Commissioner of Patents. R. H. EDDY
